SERVICE/OUTREACH

Local/ state outreach

The candidate is a faculty member of Arizona Cooperative Extension, College of Agriculture and Life Sciences, whose responsibilities include outreach educational programs.

National outreach

In my 5 years at the University of Arizona, I have been actively engaged in collaboratively developing and implementing multi-state (Arizona, Colorado, New Mexico, Nevada, and Wyoming) outreach programs that have importance at the national level. My Arizona specific research/outreach programs (e.g. Water quality, Regulation and Policy) have produced results that are directly applicable to other states and have implications at the national level.

I have made invited and selected presentations of research papers based on my research/outreach efforts at Universities including University of Chicago and Stanford University, and conferences/meetings of the national professional organizations including the Agricultural and Applied Economics Association, the Western Agricultural Economics Association, Western Economics Association, North American Econometric Society meeting, National Extension Conferences, and Northeast Universities Development Consortium (NEUDC) Conference.

International outreach

- My international outreach has been in the form invited presentations, selected papers, and through participation in international conferences/meetings in countries including Belgium, Finland, Germany, India, Ireland, South Africa and Singapore.

Departmental Committees

- Member, Graduate Committee, 2009-
- Co-organizer of Departmental Seminars, 2007-2008.
- President, Graduate Student Association, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics, Washington State University, Pullman, WA, August 2000-August 2001
- Member, Computer Committee, Department of Agricultural and Resource Economics, Washington State University, Pullman, WA, 2002-2003

College Committees

- Member, the Project Central: Leadership and Rural Vitality Program, 2006-present
- Member, Arizona Community Vitality Initiative (AZCVI), 2004-present:
Arizona Cooperative Extension has a working group and state-wide initiative network called Arizona Community Vitality Initiative (AZCVI). This network of campus and county based faculty was formed in 2002 to build capacity in the Arizona Extension System in community development processes and skills. Since 2002 we have worked with over 15 local community development projects ranging from economic development in a small rural community to developing an agriculture education center to building leadership in youth to address a local issue with the state legislature.

University Committee

- Member, Arizona Electronic Atlas Advisory Board:
Arizona Electronic Atlas is university-wide innovative effort to provide an interactive atlas with the ability to create, manipulate, and download accurate and current maps and data. The Atlas receives approximately 210 visits per day and is used by a wide variety of Arizona residents. The project is led by Christine Kollen (Social Sciences Librarian) and Jeanne Pfander (Science-Engineering Librarian), University of Arizona.

Other Committees (Internal or external)

- Reviewer for Agricultural and Applied Economics Association (AAEA) selected papers, 2009, 2004-2006
- Reviewer for Western Agricultural Economics Association (WAEA) meeting, selected papers, 2005
- Moderator for AAEA selected papers sessions, 2003-2004
- President, the Graduate Student Section (GSS) of the AAEA, July 2002-July 2003
- President-elect, the Graduate Student Section (GSS) of the AAEA, July 2001- July 2002
- Invited Editorial Board Member, Review of Agricultural Economics
- Referee for Journals: World Development, Scandinavian Journal of Economics, Journal of Epidemiology and Community Health, Review of Agricultural Economics, Agribusiness: An International Journal
