

Positive Interactions with Administrators

Module Objectives:

- Describe the role of the local agricultural education program in developing the social capital of a community.
- Identify 5 ways that social capital can also affect the school system.
- Outline strategies for forming partnerships with administrators to the betterment of both the Agricultural Education program and the school at large.